Pavilion Suites is Kuala Lumpur's ritziest upcoming development and a select few were given a walkthrough of its couture living concept, with furnished designer suites and a range of travel and entertainment services in the heart of the Bukit Bintang district. Tantalising palates was Michelin-starred chef Jeff Ramsey and his symphonic rendition of japas (Japanese tapas). A presentation by Cortina Watch of Jaeger-LeCoultre's 2016 novelties ensued and lending his prowess to the evening's proceedings was famed sommelier Yuhei Teraoka, before Louis XIII ambassador Chris Kwek added a final flourish by serving guests the precious King of Cognacs in beautiful baccarat crystal.
